Attendance and Absence

All students are expected to maintain excellent attendance in all classes. In the first instance any absence will be considered as 'unauthorised'. Parents will receive a text from the college Management system immediately following the entry of unauthorised absence on the roll. Absence will only be authorised provided the student has completed a 'Authorised Absence form', and has provided supporting evidence. For under 16s a letter from a parent/guardian is essential. The reason for absence must conform to the categories listed below. It is the students' responsibility to seek approval from the Vice Principal. In all circumstances the student must complete the 'Authorised Absence form' either in advance or on the first day of returning to the course.

Authorised absences:

- Medical or dental appointments that cannot be arranged outside classtime, must be notified in advance. Evidence such as an appointment card or letter will be required to authorise this absence.
- Emergency medical/dental appointment. Evidence such as an appointment card or letter will be required to authorise this absence.
- Any student who is unwell and requires a period of time at home or in hospital to recover from illness or an operation will be required to provide evidence such as a hospital appointment card or hospital letter to explain the nature of the illness.
- In the case of absence due to illness or hospital operation a student can only claim a maximum of 10 days in any one academic year. If a medical condition requires longer than this London Brookes College would need confirmation from the doctor.
- A religious holiday if notified in advance.
- Attendance at a family funeral if notified in advance.
- University visit or career/job interview if notified in advance.

Please note:- Sponsored international students must have a minimum attendance in line with UKBA requirements.

Students are expected to arrive promptly for all classes.

Assessment Malpractice: Plagiarism, Cheating and Copying

You must ensure that all the work produced in assignments is your own. Work must not be copied from other students or from any other person.

You must not produce assignment work in collaboration with other students unless this is allowed as part of the assignment and clearly indicated by the tutor. Quotations from published sources (including books, newspapers, magazines or the internet) must be clearly indicated in the assignment.

London Brookes College's Data Protection Policy is available on the London Brookes College website.

Disciplinary Procedure

Disciplinary action is occasionally necessary in cases of poor attendance at lessons, failure to complete and submit work, including meeting coursework deadlines, inappropriate behaviour etc. The Disciplinary Code applies to all students during their time with London Brookes College. Depending on the circumstances, the disciplinary process may commence at any stage. Serious breaches of discipline may result in you being asked to leave London Brookes College immediately. To obtain a copy of the Student Disciplinary Procedure, visit the London Brookes College website www.londonbrookescollege.co.uk

Equality

Everyone is entitled to receive support to achieve their potential regardless of their age, ethnicity, disability, gender, religion, sexuality or social grouping. You are entitled to be treated with respect and in return, you are expected to respect others.

Policy Statement

London Brookes College supports and promotes the principle of equality of opportunity in all aspects of its work. All reasonable steps will be taken to ensure that all applicants and students are treated equally and fairly, irrespective of age, disability, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, race, nationality, culture and religion or belief.

Equality Means Saying no to Bullying

If you are picked on by others (students or staff) in any way – for example: hurtful name-calling, or jokes, unwanted physical contact, threats, texts or emails – seek help from our staff. We have a published [Equality & Diversity Policy on our website \[www.londonbrookescollege.co.uk\]\(http://www.londonbrookescollege.co.uk\)](#)

Equality and Fairness

Equality is about treating everyone fairly by giving them an equal chance to succeed. This does not mean treating everyone the same, because some people need more support if they are going to be able to study e.g. someone with a disability may need to have specialist equipment in order to study; others may need linguistic or emotional support.

Policies and Procedures

Some of the differences between us are obvious, for example the colour of our skin or a visible disability. Some are not visible – it can be difficult to tell someone's religion or whether they have a psychological issue simply by looking at them. Differences mean that each of us can make our own unique contribution to London Brookes College. Diversity gives us the opportunities to encounter, respect and celebrate difference.

Harassment and Bullying

Sometimes people reject those they see as 'different' treating them unfairly and with disrespect. London Brookes College will not tolerate bullying and is prepared to take disciplinary action against those who bully. If you are bullied or witness someone being bullied, talk to your tutor. To find more information on how London Brookes College deals with bullying, look on our website for the Prevention of Bullying and Harassment Policy and Disciplinary Procedures.

Examinations

Registration and Fees

All learners will be charged initial Awarding Body registration fees. Late examination entries, re-sits or changes in your entry may result in a charge which will require payment before an Awarding registration is processed.

Please regularly check the Exams notice-board and our website for information relating to Examinations including exam rules and regulations.

Where possible, London Brookes College seeks to ensure accessibility for those with mobility problems. Please ensure that we know what your needs are so that we can make all reasonable adjustments to help you to attend and succeed in your exam.

Fire Drill

As part of your induction, the college fire drill will be explained and you will be shown the fire exits. London Brookes College has a fire drill every term and all have to participate in evacuating the college building. During this whole time remain silent and follow procedures.

In the unlikely event of a fire taking place you should not put your own safety at risk; if it is safe to do so and there are appropriate fire extinguishers available, attempts to put the fire out may be made only after raising the alarm. In almost all cases you should immediately evacuate the building. If you have difficulty in evacuating the premises unaided, you will be given special instructions. Please ensure that you:

- Close doors behind you
- Assemble at the designated assembly point
- Keep well clear of the buildings and access route for emergency vehicles
- In the event of a fire you must not re-enter the building until authorised to do so.

First Aid

London Brookes College has First Aiders who can administer simple medical help. Should you require first aid assistance, contact the administrator who will locate a qualified First Aider. If you require hospital treatment, transportation will be arranged and your next of kin informed. It will be their responsibility to arrange for your collection from hospital and transport home.

The health and safety of learners is of fundamental importance to London Brookes College. We believe that learners are entitled to a safe, healthy and supportive environment. Helpful Tips for Learning

Get organised for study

Plan a timetable for completion of coursework:
Plan to complete coursework a week ahead of submission date.

Be realistic about deadlines you set yourself

Decide your priorities and stick to them.

Make sure set task requirements are clear to you.

Complete one task before moving on to another.

If a task is large and complicated then tackle it in smaller “chunks”.

If there is a major crisis in your personal life, let your tutor know so that work can be re-scheduled if necessary.

Look after your health

Be warned! Coffee, alcohol and smoking all contribute to stress feelings.

Avoid taking non-prescription drugs.

Allow time to eat properly.

Try to keep a well-balanced diet.

Develop a regular exercise programme.

Learn to relax

Take frequent five minute breaks away from study to do something different.

Spend some time alone each day doing nothing.

Relaxation strategies

Relaxation techniques can help you by providing mental, emotional or physical release:

Mental

Doing a different type of mental exercise may be just what is needed:

If you have any knowledge of the classic techniques of yoga, meditation, then use them – or find out about them.

Focus on a fantasy journey.

Focus on an object in the room, for example a lighted candle. See the object and think only of that.

Focus on breathing: breathe deeply in through the nose, and out through the mouth in a regular rhythm, gradually allowing your breathing to adjust to its own depth.

Emotional

Learn to identify the way you respond when you are under stress:

Express those feelings appropriately, perhaps through writing or talking to others.

Physical

Exercise is valuable because it helps to reduce the levels of stress. You don't need to be a great athlete to keep fit. You could try a brisk walk and a hot bath or a massage or aromatherapy session.
