

LONDON BROOKES COLLEGE

Tutor - Quality Standards and Practice

At LONDON BROOKES COLLEGE we are committed to continually improving the delivery of our services to our stakeholders.

All tutors are expected to:

1. Use the correct and up-to-date syllabus
2. All new tutors, irrespective of previous teaching experience must see the Vice-Principal or General Manager to briefly discuss their planned teaching/assessment to include:
 - 2.1 Outline of the course, order of units, timescales per section.
 - 2.2 Visit the specification's website and ensure awareness of any changes
 - 2.3 Pay particular attention to attendance, monitoring and reporting e.g. what is and is not deemed as being authorised or unauthorised attendance
 - 2.4 Inform the administrators if any new students arrive or you find a student in class whose name does not appear on the register
 - 2.5 Liaise with the Vice Principal if any concerns arise over a student's additional needs
 - 2.6 Health and Safety: familiarise themselves with all documents related to Health & Safety policies
3. Completion of class registers: All staff must be present in class 5 minutes prior to the lesson commencing in order to reinforce the need for student punctuality.
 - 3.1 They must complete a class register for each timetabled class; the following procedure should be followed
 - 3.2 Students who arrive more 5 minutes after the start of a lesson should be marked as late. The student must only stay in class at the teacher's discretion.
4. Attendance is critical in order to meet the Home Office/ UKBA requirements for international students. The college has an obligation to notify the Home Office/UKBA of any problems with non-attendance or inability to progress academically; students should be made aware of this by subject tutor.
5. Liaise with the Vice Principal to discuss the SoW and LPs
6. Use the LONDON BROOKES COLLEGE standard documentation, policies and procedures
7. Ensure any notes of concern, such as poor attendance, lack of work, student warnings etc are communicated to the Vice Principal
